PROCEDURES FOR PROCESSING OF A MINOR VARIANCE APPLICATION

(The Planning Act, R.S.O., 1990, Section 45; Ontario Regulation 200/96)

- STEP 1: The applicant pre-consults with the Town Planner to determine application requirements and related issues and concerns. This pre-consultation may require involvement of other municipal departments and local agencies.
- STEP 2: The Town receives the complete application and required fee. The Town Planner will determine if the application is deemed complete.
- STEP 3: The Town Planner arranges a Committee of Adjustment hearing date with the members and applicant. The Committee of Adjustment consists of five (5) non-elected members. They are a quasi-judicial body which renders decisions on applications, with or without conditions.
- STEP 4: The public hearing is required under the Planning Act and the municipality requires a minimum ten (10) day notice period. Notices are circulated according to Ontario Regulation 200/96, to required agencies and to all assessed landowners within 60 metres of the lands affected by the application. The ten (10) day notice period begins the day the notices are mailed.
- STEP 5: The Committee of Adjustment holds the public hearing. The Committee will review the purpose of the application, review staff comments, agency comments and correspondence and allow the public an opportunity to make comment or question the application. Based on the outcome of the hearing, a decision will be made to grant, refuse or hold the application in abeyance until further information is received. Conditions may apply to the granting of a minor variance.
- STEP 6: The Planning Act requires a twenty (20) day appeal period which begins the day the decision is made. Notices under Ontario Regulation 200/96 are circulated by first-class mail to those requesting notice of decision. When the appeal period lapses without appeal, the decision is considered to be final.

NOTE: The municipality, applicant or any other person or public body who has requested a copy of the Committee's decision may appeal the decision of the Committee of Adjustment within the twenty (20) day period by filing an appeal with the Ontario Municipal Board for a fee.

TIME FRAME: The pre-consultation process (STEP 1) varies depending upon the complexity of the application. The process from receipt of the complete application to final approval typically takes forty-five (45) days. Appeals or concerns raised at the public hearing may delay the process.
