

Town of Arnprior

Proclamation

June 9, 2017 as:

“The Valley has Heart Day“

- WHEREAS: The University of Ottawa Heart Institute is Canada’s foremost cardiovascular health centre dedicated to understanding, treating and preventing heart disease; and
- WHEREAS: The University of Ottawa Heart Institute delivers high-tech care with a personal touch, is shaping the way cardiovascular medicine is practiced and is revolutionizing cardiac treatment and understanding; and
- WHEREAS: The University of Ottawa Heart Institute will soon open its doors to a new 145,000 sq. ft facility which will provide improved facilities and crucial support services; and
- WHEREAS: The University of Ottawa Heart Institute serves the Valley, City, National and International Community and are pioneering a new era in heart health.
- THEREFORE: I, Lynn Grinstead, Deputy Mayor of Arnprior, do hereby proclaim June 9, 2017 as “The Valley has Heart Day” in the Town of Arnprior in recognition, celebration and awareness of the University of Ottawa Heart Institute and their education, dedication and commitment to cardiovascular medicine.

Deputy Mayor Lynn Grinstead, Town of Arnprior

May 23, 2017